IN THE COMMUNITY

THE SEATTLE MARINERS COMMITMENT TO THE COMMUNITY

Serving our communities has always been a pillar of the Seattle Mariners mission.
We use our unique voice, trusted partnerships, and the inspirational power of baseball to ensure that everyone in our region can thrive. Baseball is about working together as a team to become better and stronger every day, and we bring this same spirit to our engagement with communities throughout the Pacific Northwest. Since the Mariners' nonprofit foundation was established in 1991, more than $32 million has been raised to benefit primarily youth-oriented community service programs, and we focus our efforts in three areas:

- Ensuring Access to Baseball and Softball For All
- Advancing Inclusion & Opportunity
- Making Our Hometown More Healthy and Vibrant

Ensuring Access to Baseball and Softball for All:

The Foundation funds efforts to make baseball and softball more accessible to all young people in our region. Our vision is barrier free baseball and softball at every age and stage. This includes Mariners-sponsored initiatives and community partnerships, like:

- On BASE (Baseball And Softball Everywhere) programs such as the Equipment Donation Grant, youth instructional camps, and coaches clinics
- Hometown Nine youth baseball and softball advanced development & leadership program
- No-cost camps and clinics hosted in partnership with Mariners Training Centers across the Mariners 5-state regionNike RBI partnerships with Baseball Beyond Borders in Washington, Friends of Baseball in Oregon, and Gamers Alaska

What we've accomplished so far:

- Graduated the first class to complete our first full Hometown Nine cohort from 8th-12th grade and had our first D1 and D2 Commits from the program
- Provided support to Nike RBI programs in AK, OR, and WA to grow the number of teams to 9 representing the Mariners at the Nike RBI West Regional, hosted in the Seattle area for the third year in a row, and held the second annual Skills Showcase at T-Mobile Park for RBI participants
- Hosted the most Play Ball Weekend events in MLB, including activations in WA, OR, AK, ID, MT and with 3 of our MiLB affiliates, providing youth with opportunities to play
- Brought baseball & softball to more than 4,700 kids across the Pacific Northwest as part of free youth camps and clinics
- Provided complimentary tickets to more than 150 different nonprofit organizations through the MLB Commissioner's Community Initiative, providing access for children and adults that might not otherwise have the opportunity to attend an MLB game

Advancing Inclusion & Opportunity:

The Mariners work to support all people in their right to succeed in school, work, and life. We are joined in these efforts by our Community Impact Grant partners, which include beneficiaries such as:

- King County Play Equity Coalition
- Hummingbird Indigenous Family Services
- Urban League Young Professionals
- Southeast Youth & Family Services
- UW Foster School of Business Minority Business Executive Program
- Asian Counseling and Referral Service

What we've accomplished and highlights from 2025:

- Completed our 5-year, $1 million pledge one year early to organizations advancing equity and justice, including the inaugural funding for the Seattle Foundation's Fund for Inclusive Recovery supporting the innovative work of dozens of nonprofits

- Invested in the future of 500 first-generation college students, students of color, and historically underserved students to receive flexible funding in support of their degrees through the establishment of the Seattle Colleges Stay in the Game scholarships
- Continued multi-year funding through the All-Star Legacy Initiative to the UWKC Bridge to Finish program, supporting Shoreline Community College's Benefits Hub with resources for financial support, meals, transportation, and/or housing assistance to remove barriers to degree completion
- Provided in-kind support to Rainier Athletes "Shape the Future" fundraising event, benefitting nearly 4,000 youth served by the organization
- You Grow Girl! was one of the local non profits chosen by Julio Rodríguez' No Limits Foundation to receive a grant with support from T-Mobile

Making Our Hometown More Healthy & Vibrant:

The Mariners prioritize causes that attract the passion and energies of our staff and players, in communities across the Pacific Northwest and beyond. These efforts include:

- Continuing our commitments from the 2023 MLB All-Star Game Legacy initiative
- Our longstanding partnership with the Washington State Coalition Against Domestic Violence
- Support of the King County Play Equity Coalition as part of the SEA Equity Alliance with our professional sports teams in Seattle

What we've accomplished and 2025 highlights:

- The Mariners Care Foundation 50/50 Raffle program hit a record $2.5 million in total jackpots to support efforts of the Mariners' nonprofit foundation and pre-determined nonprofit partners
- Partnered with MLB, Seattle Children's, and the Starlight Children's Foundation to deliver happiness and provide programming to hospitalized children in the Pacific Northwest
- Donated $100,000 to Northwest Harvest on behalf of Mariners fans to combat food insecurity and provide resources to ensure that families in Washington have access to the food and nutrition they deserve

Additionally, Mariners players, coaches, and families join in supporting a wide variety of causes throughout our community, including:

- J.P. Crawford: Hometown Nine, WSCADV Refuse to Abuse Campaign, Seattle Children's, RBI Showcase with Baseball Beyond Borders & Baseball Generations
- Cal Raleigh: Backpack Brigade, Recess Takeover, WSCADV Refuse to Abuse Campaign, Starlight Children's Foundation, Hurricane Helene relief efforts

OFFICERS

JOHN STANTON

Chairman & Managing Partner

John Stanton is the Mariners Chairman & Managing Partner. He was named Chairman on Aug. 19, 2016, and has served in that role since. Stanton joined the Mariners ownership group in December of 2000, and became a member of the Board of Directors in 2016.

Stanton consistently leads the organization with a focus on the Mariners Mission: We are dedicated to winning championships, creating unforgettable experiences and serving our communities.

Born in Seattle and raised in Bellevue, WA, Stanton is considered a wireless industry pioneer, co-founding three national wireless operators in the United States over the past four decades.

He is currently Chairman of the Trilogy Partnerships, a private investment firm, and serves on the boards of the Microsoft Corporation and Costco Wholesale Corporation. He is Chairman of Year Up of Puget Sound (a non-profit program for youth), and a member of the board of the Institute for Health Metrics and Evaluation, after previously serving as chair (or co-chair) of the boards of Whitman College, the Business Partnership for Early Learning, the United Way of King County campaign, the Washington Roundtable and the Regional Transportation Commission.

John and his wife Terry Gillespie also own interests in the Tacoma Rainiers (Pacific Coast League) and in the Walla Walla Sweets of the West Coast Collegiate Baseball League. He has been active in youth baseball in the area for over 30 years.

John earned a B.A. from Whitman College (Walla Walla, WA) and an MBA from Harvard Business School. John and Terry have two adult sons.

KEVIN MARTINEZ

President of Business Operations

Kevin Martinez enters his second season since being named Mariners President of Business Operations on Oct. 4, 2024. He is responsible for all aspects of the Mariners business operations, overseeing every branch of the organization with the exception of Baseball Operations, which is led by Jerry Dipoto. Kevin has been a pivotal figure in the Mariners organization for parts of four decades. Throughout his career, Kevin has been committed to providing the best and most accessible fan experience in sports at T-Mobile Park.

In his role, he remains focused on that commitment as well as developing new ways for fans to experience Mariners baseball beyond the ballpark. Martinez has played an integral part in shaping the Mariners brand for over three decades, overseeing marketing, advertising, social media, digital content creation, research, in-park entertainment and special events, as well as directing the club's communications departments, including broadcasting, baseball and brand communications. Martinez directed the club's marketing efforts in 2001 and 2002 when the Mariners led Major League Baseball in home attendance, eclipsing 3.5 million fans in each of those seasons.

Under his leadership, the Mariners have created some of the most innovative and decorated marketing concepts in all of sports, including award-winning advertising campaigns and memorable promotions like "Turn Ahead the Clock Night" and "Buhner Buzz Cut Night." In addition, events and programs like FanFest, Opening Week Warm-Up, Mariners Street Fleet, Kids Club and others have provided fans with incredible memories while fostering a deeper connection with the organization.

Kevin has also designed and led all 11 of the Mariners Hall of Fame inductions and was instrumental in the creation and placement of statues honoring Dave Niehaus, Ken Griffey Jr. and Edgar Martinez. The 2026 season will be Kevin's 36th season with the Mariners. He spent seven seasons (2018-24) as the Mariners Senior Vice President of Marketing & Communications after being promoted on Nov. 9, 2017. Martinez was originally hired as the club's Promotions Manager in 1990 and was promoted to Director of Promotions in 1993. Kevin was the Boston Celtics Director of Promotions & Special Events from 1994-96; responsibilities included planning and executing promotions and marketing for the final season in Boston Garden and the Inaugural Season in the FleetCenter, now the TD Garden. Martinez returned to the Mariners in 1996 as Director of Marketing and was promoted to Vice President of Marketing in Dec. 2001. Prior to joining the Mariners, Kevin worked for the ABC Television Network in New York.

A native of Edison, New Jersey, Martinez graduated from the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse University.

Martinez resides in Bellevue, WA.

HOWARD LINCOLN

Chairman Emeritus

A key player in the formation of the ownership group that saved the Mariners for Seattle in 1992, Howard Lincoln served as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer from Sept. 27, 1999 to Aug. 19, 2016, when he was named Chairman Emeritus. His service was recognized with the Seattle Mariners Franchise Achievement Award in 2016. Lincoln continues as a member of the board of directors.

On Feb. 14, 2000 Lincoln retired from his position as chairman of Nintendo of America, Inc. to devote his full efforts to the Mariners. Lincoln joined Nintendo as its senior vice president and general counsel in January 1983. In February 1994, he was elected to the board of Nintendo of America, Inc. and appointed chairman of the company.

Philanthropy plays an important role in Lincoln's life. In addition to his strong support of the Mariners Foundation, he is a former chairman of the Children's Hospital Foundation. He was the Campaign Chair of United Way of King County's 2003/04 Annual Campaign. Lincoln is a board member of The Washington Roundtable.

Lincoln is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, and holds a law degree from Boalt Hall, the University of California School of Law. Following graduation from law school, Lincoln served as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Navy Judge Advocate General's Corps from 1966 to 1970. He practiced law in Seattle from 1970 to 1983. He and his wife, Grace, reside on Mercer Island. Their son, Brad, and his wife, Kim, have two children: Ethan and Benjamin.

JOHN ELLIS

Chairman Emeritus

A life-long resident of the Seattle area, John Ellis led the efforts to keep Major League Baseball in the Pacific Northwest. Upon transfer of the Mariners franchise to the new ownership group, Ellis became its first chairman and CEO, serving from June 29, 1992 until September 27, 1999, when he was named Chairman Emeritus. Ellis continues as a member of the Mariners Board of Directors.

During the seven full seasons of his tenure, the Mariners only finished below .500 once, while winning two Division titles and narrowly missing a third. Community and fan support improved enormously – attendance grew from 1,651,398 in 1992 to 3,507,975 in 2001. The greatest accomplishment under his leadership was the construction of our world-class ballpark, T-Mobile Park.

In 2025, the Mariners went 90-72 and won the American League West Division for the first time since 2001. Seattle defeated the Detroit Tigers in the ALDS, 3 games to 2, and came within 1 game of winning an AL pennant for the first time in franchise history, narrowly falling to the Toronto Blue Jays in the ALCS, 4 to 3.

Dipoto and the front office made key acquisitions at the 2025 Trade Deadline, which included trading for infielders Josh Naylor and Eugenio Suárez from the Arizona Diamondbacks.

Following the 2025 season, Dipoto was named Baseball America's Executive of the Year.

The Mariners are 1 of 4 clubs with at least 85 wins in each of the last 5 seasons (2021-c), along with the Houston Astros, Los Angeles Dodgers, and Milwaukee Brewers. In 2022, the Mariners broke a 20-season playoff drought and defeated the Toronto Blue Jays, 2-0, in the AL Wild Card Series. In 2021, Seattle won 90 games despite a -51 run differential. The Mariners have won at least 90 games in 8 different seasons, with 3 of them (2021-22, '25) during Dipoto's tenure.

Seattle has regularly boasted a consensus top farm system since Dipoto took the reins, including a #1 ranked system by Baseball America and The Athletic.

Key trades Dipoto has made since being at the helm include acquiring shortstop J.P. Crawford from Philadelphia in 2018, Andrés Muñoz, Ty France, Luis Torrens and Taylor Trammell from San Diego in 2020, Luis Castillo from Cincinnati at the 2022 Trade Deadline, Randy Arozarena from Tampa Bay at the 2024 Trade Deadline, and several others. Following the 2022 season in which the Mariners went 90-72 and made it to the Postseason, while also ranking as a top farm system, Seattle was named Baseball America's Organization of the Year, the first time the Mariners were crowned with that award.

Homegrown starting pitching has been a hallmark of Jerry's tenure with the Mariners, with draft selections Logan Gilbert, George Kirby, and Bryan Woo each making at least one All-Star appearance, along with Bryce Miller solidifying himself as a quality Major League starter.

In his 26th season as a baseball executive, and his 15th as a General Manager/President of Baseball Ops, Jerry got his start immediately after retiring as a player in 2001. Dipoto appeared in 390 Major League games, all in relief, with Cleveland (1993-94), the New York Mets (1995-96) and Colorado Rockies (1997-2000). A right-handed pitcher, he compiled a career 27-24 record with 49 saves and a 4.05 ERA prior to retiring during Spring Training in 2001 with a bulging disc in his neck.

HOW TO FIGURE

Batting Average — Divide the total number of hits collected by a player by the total number of at bats. Example: Player A is 12-of-40 or .300.

Slugging Percentage — Divide the number of total bases by the total number of at bats. Example: Player A's 12 hits include six singles (6), one double (2), two triples (6) and three home runs (12) for a total of 26 total bases in 40 at bats and a .650 slugging percentage.

On-Base Percentage — Divide the total of hits, walks and hit by pitch by the total of at bats, all bases on balls, hit by pitch and sacrifice flies.

Earned Run Average — The total number of earned runs allowed by a pitcher is divided by the total number of innings pitched and then multiplied by nine for his per-game average. Example: Pitcher B has allowed 12 earned runs in 45 innings of work for a 2.40 ERA.

Fielding Percentage — The sum of putouts and assists is divided by the sum of putouts, assists and errors. Example: Player C has made 16 putouts and 24 assists and two errors. That's 40 putouts and assists divided by 42 chances for a fielding average of .952.

Magic Number — Determine the number of games yet to be played by the division leader, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

However, roof may be opened only once during a game and shall commence only between innings after the umpire crew chief has been notified. Prior to opening of roof, the visiting club may challenge the opening if it feels a competitive imbalance will arise. The crew chief will make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.

Guidelines for Selection to the Mariners Hall of Fame and Retirement of Uniform Number

The Mariners Hall of Fame was established in 1997 to honor the great players and other individuals who make positive contributions to the history of the Mariners franchise.

I. Eligible Candidates -

A. Active in a Mariners uniform for a substantial and/or meaningful portion of their Major League career.

B. Ceased to be active in the Major Leagues at least two seasons preceding the selection, but may be otherwise connected with baseball.

To be eligible for consideration, non-uniformed personnel should meet the following requirements:

A. Full-time employee of the Mariners for at least five seasons.

B. Made significant contributions to Mariners baseball and the franchise, either on or off the field.

II. Method of Selection – The Mariners governing board, the Board of Directors of Baseball of Seattle, Inc., makes the selections for the Mariners Hall of Fame. Such selections may be made at the initiative of the Board, or at the recommendation of the Chairman and the President of the Mariners, the Mariners front office, Mariners players, members of the media or the fans.

III. Criteria for Selection – The primary criterion for inclusion in the Mariners Hall of Fame for players shall be the on-field impact a player had while in a Mariners uniform. The measure of a player's impact shall primarily be the statistical record created by the player. A player's impact on the Northwest community outside the game of baseball; and a player's positive impact in enhancing the image of the Seattle Mainers or Major League Baseball will also be considered.

The Mariners will consider other factors, such as:

1. Statistical impact on the field while in a non-Mariners uniform, whether before or after his tenure with the Mariners;
2. A player's positive impact on the Northwest community outside the game of baseball; and
3. A player's positive impact in enhancing the image of the Seattle Mariners or Major League Baseball.

IV. Time of Selection – The Board will consider recommendations of eligible candidates at least once each year, typically at its annual business meeting each fall. There may be more than one selection in a given year, and there may be no selection at all.

V. Retirement of Uniform Number – The Mariners plan to retire uniform numbers only very selectively and subject to substantially higher expectations than those applied to the Mariners Hall of Fame. To be eligible to have one's number retired, in addition to the criteria outlined above, the former Mariners should have either a) been elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame and been in a Mariners uniform for at least five years, or b) come close to such election and spent his entire career or a substantial portion of his career with the Mariners. Eligibility shall not commence until after the former player has been voted on once for the National Baseball Hall of Fame, which for all practical purposes means six years after retirement. In this regard, the Mariners will take into consideration the policy of other American League clubs in retiring uniform numbers. This determination will also be made by the Board.

VI. Amendments – The Seattle Mariners reserve the right to alter and amend these guidelines at any time.

ALL-STAR GAMES IN SEATTLE

July 17, 1979 National League 7, American League 6

MVP: Dave Parker (PIT) Ceremonial First Pitch: Danny Kaye
Mariners All-Stars: Bruce Bochte (1B), Darrell Johnson (coach)

MLB's 50th All-Star Game was played at the Kingdome on July 17, 1979, in just the third season of the Mariners franchise.

The National League won 7-6, and the game featured 16 future Hall of Fame players. Both managers (Bob Lemon-AL and Tommy Lasorda-NL) have also been inducted in Cooperstown. The sellout crowd of 58,905 was a Seattle baseball record at the time. The Kingdome was considered a "home run paradise" but only two homers were hit in the game (Fred Lynn and Lee Mazzilli).

Mariners first baseman Bruce Bochte was greeted with a long standing ovation during pre-game introductions, and had the first hit and RBI by a Mariner in All-Star competition. Pittsburgh's Dave Parker, with a hit, an RBI and assists on two classic throws from right field to third base and home plate, was named the Game's MVP.

Mets center fielder Lee Mazzilli played a big role for the NL, belting a solo home run off Texas' Jim Kern in the 8th inning to even the score at 6-6. In the top of the 9th, Mazzilli drew a bases-loaded walk off the Yankees Ron Guidry to give the National League a 7-6 lead.

A pair of Hall of Famer pitchers got the starting assignments: Nolan Ryan for the American League and Steve Carlton for the National League.

The 50th Midsummer Classic was the first baseball game broadcast to a national audience from the Kingdome.

MARINERS ALL-STAR HISTORY

The Mariners have a rich All-Star Game history. The club has hosted three All-Star Games, sent 56 different players, as well as six coaches, to the Midsummer Classic and boasts three Most Valuable Players and three starting pitchers.

In 1979, the All-Star Game was played in Seattle for the first time, as the Kingdome was the site of 7-6 National League victory. The Midsummer Classic returned to Seattle in 2001 for a 4-1 American League triumph at T-Mobile Park. Seattle hosted it's 3rd All-Star Game and 2nd at T-Mobile Park in 2023, with a 3-2 National League win.

'07 ASG MVP Ichiro Suzuki

The Mariners first All-Star representative was outfielder Ruppert Jones in 1977. Jones was just 22 years of age at the time, and he remained the club's youngest All-Star until a 20-year-old Ken Griffey Jr. in 1990.

'92 ASG MVP Ken Griffey Jr.

Griffey and Ichiro Suzuki share the club record for most All-Star Game appearances with 10 apiece. Edgar Martinez earned 7 trips to the Midsummer Classic, while Félix Hernández had 6 and Randy Johnson had 5.

Five Mariners were selected to the 2003 All-Star Game in Chicago (AL), including 40-year-olds Martinez and Jamie Moyer. The Mariners became the first club in All-Star Game history to have a pair of 40-year-old players appear in the same Midsummer Classic.

'17 ASG MVP Robinson Canó

In 2001, Freddy Garcia earned the win, while Kazuhiro Sasaki picked up the save in front of the hometown crowd. Edwin Diaz was credited with the win in the 2018 All-Star Game.

The Mariners sent 5 players to the 2025 All-Star Game in Atlanta, tied for the 2nd-most in club history. Headlined by 2025 Home Run Derby champion Cal Raleigh, he was joined by right-handed pitchers Bryan Woo and Andrés Muñoz and outfielders Randy Arozarena and Julio Rodríguez.

2014	4	Robinson Canó, Félix Hernández, Fernando Rodney, Kyle Seager
2018	4	Nelson Cruz, Edwin Díaz, Mitch Haniger, Jean Segura

This group combined for 28 All-Star Game appearances with the Mariners.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYERS

Three Mariners have been named Most Valuable Player of the Midsummer Classic: Ken Griffey Jr. in 1992 (at San Diego), Ichiro Suzuki in 2007 (at San Francisco) and Robinson Cano in 2017 (at Miami).

HOME RUNS AT THE ALL-STAR GAME

Griffey, Suzuki and Cano headline a list of six Mariners who have homered in the All-Star Game. They are joined by Edgar Martinez, who went deep of Greg Maddux at the 1997 summer showcase in Cleveland. One year later, Alex Rodriguez hit a solo home run off Andy Ashby in Denver. In 2018, Jean Segura pinch hit in the 8th inning and belted a go-ahead, three-run homer off Josh Hader in Washington, D.C.

STARTING PITCHERS

The two most successful pitchers in club history are also the only two Mariners pitchers to earn the starting nod in an All-Star Game.

Randy Johnson entered the 1995 All-Star Break with a record of 9-1, having struck out 152 batters in 109.1 innings of work. The Big Unit was on his way to his first career Cy Young Award when he was named the starting pitcher for the American League by manager Buck Showalter. Johnson worked 2.0 scoreless innings at The Ballpark in Arlington, fanning Barry Bonds, Fred McGriff and Ron Gant. Two years later, Johnson was again tabbed to start for the AL by manager Joe Torre. He tossed 2.0 scoreless innings in Cleveland, fanning Bonds and Craig Biggio.

In the first half of 2014, Félix Hernández ranked among the top-2 American League leaders in wins, ERA, innings and strikeouts, earning the start for the AL from manager John Farrell. Hernández struck out Yasiel Puig and Troy Tulowitzki in 1.0 scoreless inning in Minneapolis.

HOME RUN DERBY

The Seattle Mariners have had 8 players participate in the Home Run Derby since its inception in 1985, including Hall of Famers Ken Griffey Jr. (8x, 1990, '92-94, '97-'00) and Edgar Martinez (2000), along with Jay Buhner (1996), Alex Rodriguez (1998), Bret Boone (2x, 2001, '03), Robinson Canó (2016), Julio Rodríguez (2x, 2022-23) and Cal Raleigh (2025).

Griffey's eight Derby appearances (including 2000, when he represented Cincinnati) are the most in MLB history. He remains the only player to win the event three times, claiming titles in 1994 (Three Rivers Stadium), 1998 (Coors Field), and 1999 (Fenway Park).

Julio Rodríguez made a historic Derby debut in 2022, becoming the first player ever to record consecutive rounds of 30+ home runs. His 80 total home runs that day ranked third-most in a single Derby. In 2023 the then 22-year-old set the single-round record with 41 home runs on his home turf at T-Mobile Park, surpassing Vladimir Guerrero Jr.'s 40 in 2019. Rodríguez finished with 61 total home runs, the sixth-most in a single Derby, and his 142 career Derby homers rank third all-time in MLB history.

Cal Raleigh made history in 2025, becoming the first catcher and first switch-hitter to win the Home Run Derby. "Big Dumper" defeated 22-year-old Junior Caminero in the final, joining Griffey Jr. as the only Mariners ever crowned Derby champion. With his father pitching and his brother catching, Raleigh hit from both sides of the plate in the opening round, joining Baltimore's Adley Rutschman (2023) as the only participants to ever do so.

T-MOBILE PARK

T-Mobile Park is the home of the Seattle Mariners. Since the Inaugural Game on July 15, 1999, more than 50,000,000 fans have passed through the gates of the ballpark.

The Mariners are truly a regional team, drawing from one of the largest geographic home territories in Major League Baseball – Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Alaska and parts of Western Canada. We have learned from surveys that over half our fans come from outside King County, and nearly half (48%) tell us they travel more than one hour to get to the ballpark on game days.

Once they arrive at T-Mobile Park, fans are treated to one of the best ballparks in baseball, with a combination of the charm of a classic ballpark and the modern touches that make a fan's game experience that much better, including free WiFi and one of the largest HD videoscreens in all of MLB.

Sightlines from all seating areas are designed for optimal viewing. There are plenty of places to gather and casually watch the game while enjoying the beauty of the natural surroundings of Puget Sound and the downtown Seattle skyline.

In addition to baseball, T-Mobile Park has hosted such events as varied as U.S. Men's soccer matches, Women's Gold Cup Soccer, the 2024 NHL Winter Classic, the 2001 Seattle Bowl NCAA football game, WWE's Wrestlemania XIX, the WIAA State High School Baseball Championships, high school and collegiate baseball games, major concerts, numerous graduations, weddings, proms, trade shows, birthday parties and holiday celebrations.

Over the years, T-Mobile Park has received numerous honors and appeared on many Top 10 and "best" lists. The ballpark was one of only two Seattle buildings to be named in the American Institute of Architects poll of America's favorite buildings. Opposing players have named it their second favorite ballpark to play in, behind Wrigley Field (MLB.com players' survey). ESPN.com staff and readers named the ballpark among their Top 10 in separate surveys, and noted travel guidebook Zagat ranked T-Mobile Park one of the top family-friendly attractions in the nation.

T-Mobile Park has achieved something fans, public officials and the Mariners ownership craved for most of the franchise's history – stability for Major League Baseball in the Northwest. The public-private partnership that built the ballpark resulted in a beautiful facility for all to enjoy and a solid foundation for the Seattle Mariners. The Mariners 25-year lease agreement with the Washington State Major League Baseball Stadium Public Facilities District obligates the Mariners to pay over $600 million to maintain and improve T-Mobile Park to ensure that it remains in first-class condition and among the best ballparks in baseball.

RETRACTABLE ROOF

During the 2025 season, the T-Mobile Park retractable roof was closed (or moved during play) in 11 of 81 (13.6%) home games. Since T-Mobile Park opened in July 1999, the roof has been in use during 446 of 2,096 home games (21.3%). The roof is necessary to guard against the risk of a rain out and assure fans that if they travel to T-Mobile Park, they'll see a ballgame.

T-Mobile Park's retractable roof covers but does not enclose the field and seating areas, thus preserving an open-air environment. The structure has a footprint of nearly nine acres, weighs 22 million pounds, and contains enough steel to build a 55-story skyscraper. The three movable panels glide on 128 steel wheels powered by 96 10-horsepower electric motors. The roof can extend or retract in 10-20 minutes, depending on weather conditions.

SCOREBOARD SYSTEM

T-Mobile Park is home to one of the largest HD videoscreens in all of MLB. The Daktronics LED video display is HDR-capable and measures 201'1" wide by 56'5" high. The total viewing area, 11,345 square feet, is equal to 1,062 60-inch TVs. The 6120 x 1720 screen resolution provides high-contrast image quality that is superior to broadcast HD signals. The display can have multiple layouts to bring content to life for Mariners fans. This allows the display to show one large image or multiple zones of content, including live video, instant replays, up-to-the-minute statistics and game information, player and interactive video features, graphics and animations. It integrates seamlessly with the other LED displays at T-Mobile Park for a cohesive fan experience.

PLAYING FIELD

T-Mobile Park's playing surface is designed for the Northwest climate and the retractable roof. The 100% Kentucky bluegrass turf provides a durable playing surface that grows well despite low levels of direct sunlight. The retractable roof can remain closed, if needed, for six consecutive days without harming the grass. The entire playing surface was rebuilt after the 2017 season and new sod was installed prior to the 2020 season.

CONCESSIONS AND RESTAURANTS

T-Mobile Park's concessions and catering services are provided by Sodexo Live!, one of the nation's largest providers of food, catering, merchandise and facility management services for sports, convention and entertainment venues. Fans will find a variety of fresh, high-quality choices from the Northwest and around the world available at the ballpark including local favorites such as Ivar's and Marination. T-Mobile Park features a variety of menu items including grass-fed burgers, house-made BBQ beef and Dungeness crab sandwiches, all using fresh, local ingredients. Fans will also find sushi and other Asian delicacies, organic, gluten-free and vegetarian options, as well as classic ballpark fare. The Hit it Here Café and Edgar's Cantina provide seating before and during games, and the members-only Terrace Club, Press Club, Muckleshoot Diamond Club, All-Star Club, private and group suites offer a selection of creative and delicious food.

SPECIAL FEATURES

T-Mobile Park has a number of unique areas for fans to enjoy before and during games. The T-Mobile 'Pen is an event-within-an-event. Located behind left and center field, the area features premium concessions from Ballard Pizza Co., Edgar's Cantina, Marination and Great State Burger, plus beverage spots including The Miller Lite Bullpen Bar, Tito's and Slushietown. Additionally, there is a Seattle Mariners Team Store and the Fan Walk personalized bricks. The terraces behind the center field fence offer a lively atmosphere to meet and mingle with other fans and enjoy one of the best views of the game.

The Trident Deck is located at the end of the left field line on the 300 (View) Level. The full service bar has a casual backyard-like feel with bench seating and picnic tables. The space is available for sale to groups during games and open to all fans when not in use for group events.

The Rooftop Boardwalk above the Home Plate Gate Rotunda on the View Level includes a raised walkway for enhanced views of Puget Sound, bench seating and tables, , destination concession stands, bar areas, and Kids Corner baseball-themed activities. The space is available for sale to groups for pregame events and open to all fans at game time.

The Terrace Club has two unique seating concepts with 18 Terrace Club Tables that accommodate four people each as well as 10 Terrace Club Loge Boxes with padded sofa-style seats that accommodate up to four guests. Both concepts include video monitors, mobile device charging stations and in-seat wait staff service with exclusive menu options.

The Walk-Off Markets feature Amazon's Just Walk Out technology, where fans can pay upon entry, shop and then leave. The Markets are stocked with selection of beers, cocktails, and Coca-Cola products, plus best-selling ballpark fare, merchandise and more. In addition, select specialty food items are available each season. The Mariners were the first to bring the two frictionless technologies to a Major League ballpark.

The Seattle Children's Playfield is located on the Main Concourse in center field. It lets kids work off excess energy on fun, baseball-themed playground equipment. Next to the Playfield is Moose Munchies, a concession stand just for kids featuring menu items like peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, small hot dogs, Cracker Jack and soft drinks, all served in a souvenir plastic bucket. Immediately outside the Playfield is the Seattle Children's Wishing Well. Coins tossed into the Wishing Well are donated to Seattle Children's to support patient care.

The Baseball Museum of the Pacific Northwest and Seattle Mariners Hall of Fame provide a connection to the region's rich baseball history. They are co-located on the Main Concourse along the third base line and are open to all fans during games.

The flagship Mariners Team Store is open year-round with one of the world's largest selections of Mariners apparel and merchandise for men, women and children. The Kid's Clubhouse, located next to the Children's Playfield, caters to children and youth.

Works by 11 Northwest artists are incorporated into the design of the ballpark and parking garage. The ambitious $1.3 million public art program includes a variety of installations that celebrate the game of baseball, including a huge bronze mitt outside the Left Field Gate and a chandelier of 1,000 translucent, regulation-sized baseball bats above the Home Plate Gate grand staircase.

SUSTAINABILITY

The Seattle Mariners are committed to operating the franchise and T-Mobile Park in an environmentally responsible manner. In 2017, these efforts earned the Mariners the "Green Glove Award" for the highest recycling rate in Major League Baseball (96%). In 2025, Seattle won MLB's H2O Home Run Award for a 26% reduction in water usage compared to 2023.

In 2015, T-Mobile Park became the first MLB ballpark to illuminate the playing field with LED lights. The lights reduce glare and shadows on the field providing a better experience for players and fans (both at the ballpark and at home on HD TV). The lights use 60% less power and have a 30-year lifespan (vs. three years for the old metal halide lights).

An array of solar panels on the roof of the skybridge to the Mariners parking garage generate 40,000-kilowatt hours of power annually and four electric vehicle charging stations are available to the public year round.

Through conservation and capital investments, the Mariners have made great strides in reducing consumption of electricity, water and natural gas, significantly reducing the team's impact on the environment.

PEORIA SPORTS COMPLEX

The City of Peoria, Seattle Mariners and San Diego Padres opened the Peoria Sports Complex in 1994, the first shared spring training facility in Arizona. Peoria Stadium is the centerpiece of the complex, which includes five and a half practice fields as well as headquarters for both teams on 145 acres.

- Peoria Stadium underwent extensive renovations in 2016 and 2017, adding seats, two fan pavilion areas and an expanded Team Store. The park seats 12,518 fans. The dimensions of the outfield are 340 ft. down each line, 385 ft. in the power alleys and 410 ft. to center.
- Complex is located 20 miles northwest of downtown Phoenix, just off Loop 101.
- The Mariners used the Padres facilities in the spring training of 1993, when the Seattle club played all its Cactus League games on the road.
- From the Mariners inception in 1977 through 1992, Tempe Diablo Stadium was the spring home of the Mariners.
- The Mariners facilities are used in the summer by their Peoria team (Arizona League), and in the fall for Arizona Fall League baseball.
- The Peoria Sports Complex is “green” and environmentally friendly, and promotes renewable, clean energy. The rooftop solar panels supply nearly half of the facility’s annual energy use.

The team Spring Training facilities are LEED Gold certified. LEED certified buildings save money and resources and have a positive impact on the health of occupants, while promoting renewable, clean energy. LEED, or Leadership in Energy & Environmental Design, is a green building certification program that recognizes best-in-class building strategies and practices.

KINGDOME FAREWELL

After 22-and-a-half years, the Seattle Mariners said farewell to the Kingdome on Sunday, June 27, 1999. A sold-out crowd of 56,530 fans watched the Mariners defeat the Texas Rangers 5-2. A post-game ceremony featured a ceremonial "final pitch" in the Kingdome, as Bob "Scrap Iron" Stinson caught a pitch tossed by Cory Segui, the grandson of Diego Segui. Segui and Stinson made up the starting battery of the Mariners inaugural game on April 6, 1977. Mariners Legends who participated in the post-game ceremony included Hall of Famer Gaylord Perry, Ruppert Jones, Alvin Davis, Julio Cruz and Harold Reynolds.

A CAPSULE HISTORY OF PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL IN SEATTLE

1890: The first professional baseball team in Seattle was organized. The Seattle Reds played in the Class-C Pacific Northwest League.

1892: The Reds (first-half champions) won the PNL Pennant when the Portland club declined to enter the playoffs because of financial problems.

1896: Club was re-named "Braves" and moved into its first stadium (Athletic Park – 14th and Yesler).

1903: The AAA Pacific Coast League was formed and Seattle was a charter member. Thus, Seattle had two professional baseball teams for one season (the Braves played in the Pacific National League and folded after one year).

1906-17: Seattle ended its membership in the PCL and joined the Class-B Northwestern League.

1919: Seattle re-joined the PCL. The club was named "Indians" and played a 225-game schedule (the extended season format continued through the 1957 PCL season).

1937: Emil Sick bought the Seattle franchise for $115,000 and immediately changed the nickname to "Rainiers" (Mr. Sick also owned and operated the Rainier Brewing Company).

1938: On June 15, the Rainiers moved into Sick's Seattle Stadium (capacity of 11,500). Local sports hero Fred Hutchinson went 25-7 in his rookie season.

1939-41: The Rainiers won three consecutive PCL pennants.

1946: Seattle Steelheads of West Coast Negro Baseball League played the inaugural game of their only season on June 1 vs. San Diego Tigers at Sicks' Stadium.

1955: Hutchinson returned as manager of the Rainiers and led the club to another PCL crown. In addition, the first official proposal for a domed stadium in Seattle was made (bond issues for the project failed in 1960 and 1964).

1960: Sick sold the club to the Boston Red Sox. Seattle became the Red Sox AAA affiliate.

1965-68: The California Angels purchased the club and Bob Lemon managed Seattle to its last PCL baseball championship in 1966.

1967: Public approval was given for funds needed to build a domed stadium (completion was scheduled to be prior to the 1972 season).

1969: An expansion team, the Seattle Pilots came into existence and began play in the American League. Sicks Stadium was expanded to seat 28,500.

1970: On March 31, financial difficulties resulted in the Pilots moving to Milwaukee (club was re-named "Brewers"). Plans to build a domed stadium were temporarily interrupted.

1972-76: Seattle fielded a team in the Class-A Northwest League.

1977: On April 6, Major League Baseball returned to Seattle when the Mariners played the California Angels before a Kingdome crowd of 57,762. The Mariners starting pitcher that night was Diego Segui, a member of the 1969 Pilots.

1979: The 50th MLB All-Star Game was played at the Kingdome on July 17. The NL defeated the AL 7-6.

1995: On October 2, Seattle won its first American League West pennant.

1999: On June 27, Mariners played their last game in Kingdome, defeating Texas 5-2.

1999: On July 15, Seattle played its first game in the new outdoor ballpark, T-Mobile Park, against the San Diego Padres, losing 3-2.

2001: On October 6, Seattle tied a ML record by recording its 116th win of the season.

2012: On Aug. 15 vs. Tampa Bay, Félix Hernández threw the first perfect game in club history.

2016: On July 24 in Cooperstown, NY, Ken Griffey Jr. became the first player inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame as a Mariner.

2019: On July 21 in Cooperstown, NY, Edgar Martinez became the second Mariner to be inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

2020: Played a 60-game shortened season, beginning in late-July, in response to the COVID-19 pandemic that struck the world in March.

2025: On July 27 in Cooperstown, NY, Ichiro Suzuki became the third Mariner to be inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame.
